Malad Kandivli Education Society's

M.K.E.S. COLLEGE OF LAW

ISO 9001 : 2015 Certified

Bhavishya Bharat Campus, S. V. Road, Malad (West), Mumbai - 400 064.

Tel : 28010607 | E-mail : mkeslawcollege@nkc.ac.in

Website : www.mkescollegeoflaw.ac.in

Annual Report

V. R. Dube

Dr. Vandana R. Dube

I/c Principal

MKES COLLEGE OF LAW

LOQUITUR

VOL. I

2017-2018

Women's Day Celebration

International women's day is observed on 8th march to celebrate the achievements of women in various fields such as economics, politics, medicine etc. It is a day when the world conveys its love, respect and gratitude towards the constant contribution and unwavering support of women towards the progress of mankind. On this auspicious day of International Women's Day, the Debate Society of MKES College of Law was pleased to organise "Vividha", an interactive session on "Violence against Women" by Ms. Nausheen Yousuf.

The Society was honoured to have Ms. Nausheen Yousuf, a celebrated lawyer and Human Rights' activist from Majlis Legal Centre, enlighten the students of our college with her deep wisdom and knowledge. Majlis is an NGO working in the field of women's rights. Ms Yousuf has been working with Majlis since the past 10 years.She has been an ardent advocate of women's rights and has strived hard to engage college students in the various issues concerning women through numerous awareness programmes.

Saluting these multifarious roles played by a woman in her life and society, the Debate Society of our college chose to name the session as "Vividha". Vividha means "Diverse". It represents the grace and ease with which a woman discharge a myriad of duties on a daily basis.

> "A woman is the full circle.
> Within her is the power to create, nurture and transform."
> - Diane Mariechild

The session was abound with information and knowledge related to various crimes against women. Ms Yousuf shared her wisdom and knowledge in the field of domestic laws, which she had gained through years of hard work while fighting for the rights of distressed women in the court of law. Through her powerful sharing and engaging conversation, the students gained a valuable insight into the struggles of women for their legal rights. She conducted the session in a teen-friendly manner. Everyone could relate to her and get the most out of the session.

The session was followed by the Cover Launch of our maiden college magazine, Loquitur. The cover, designed by Manaswi Shah and Harshada Chirawawala from the magazine committee was well liked and appreciated by the faculty members and students alike.

Majlis

A Student of Mkes College Of Law, Tithi Kaur Arora had attended an event of Women's Day Celebration organised by 'We Action Group' and 'Majlis' on 15th March, 2018 at Kalina and Jamlipada , Santacruz East , Mumbai. We Action Group is an active network of NGO's in Mumbai who work for Human Rights , Women's Rights, Child Rights , Rights of Senior Citizens and Rights of other Marginalized persons in Mumbai.

The participants were colour coordinated in White and Purple and wore White caps. They also displayed Banners and Placards and recited Inspiring Messages and Slogans about Woman Empowerment. This years youngest participant was a 3 year old girl and the eldest were women over the age of 80. They also imprinted their handprints in colored paints on white banners in order to showcase their solidarity towards Woman Empowerment and as a collective stand against Violence.

Tithi Kaur Arora, TYBLS
Member, Magazine Committee

Malad Kandivli Education Society's

M.K.E.S. COLLEGE OF LAW

Bhavishya Bharat Campus, S. V. Road, Malad (West), Mumbai - 400 064.

Tel : 28010607 / 28085424 / 28086427 Fax : 28650461

E-mail : mkeslawcollege@nkc.ac.in | Website : www.mkescollegeoflaw.ac.in

NINE SQUARE PRINTS (INDIA) PVT. LTD., MUMBAI-23. Tel : 40785656 (A-219-18)

M.K.E.S. COLLEGE OF LAW

LOQUITUR

सत्यमेव जयते

70th Celebration of CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

Section - 497 Article 35-A Section 377 Article 370

VOL. II

2018-2019

KARGIL VIJAY DIWAS

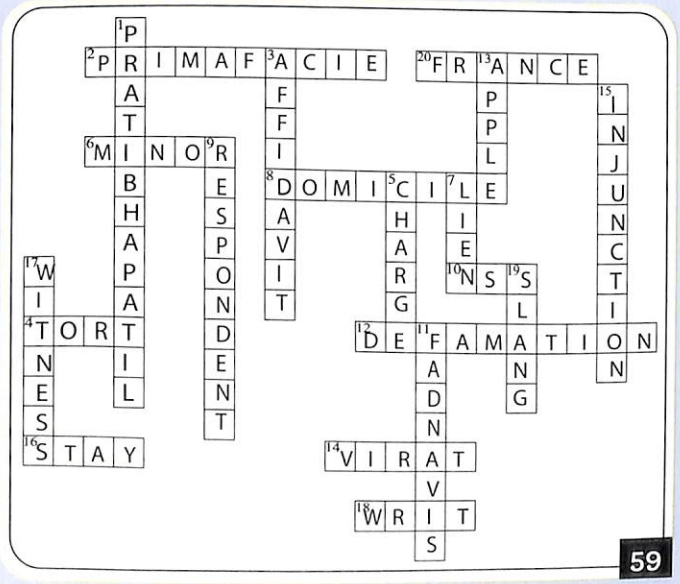

Kargil Vijay Diwas, named after the successful OPERATION VIJAY, is celebrated in India on 26th July. On this date in 1999, India successfully took command of the high outposts which had been lost to Pakistan. The Kargil war was fought for more than 60 days, ended on 26th July and resulted in loss of life on both the sides. The war ended with India regaining control of all the previously held territory, hence re-establishing the status quo ante bellium. Kargil Vijay Diwas is celebrated on 26th July every year in honour of the Kargil War's Heroes. This day is celebrated in the Kargil – Drass sector and the national capital New Delhi, where the Prime Minister of India pays homage to the soldiers at Amar Jawan Jyoti at Indian Gate every year. Functions are also organized all over the country to commemorate the contributions of the armed forces.

A soldier serves the armed forces of a country. Soldiers are the most disciplined and faithful people in a nation. They keep nightlong vigilance on the borders even as they face great dangers. They stands heroically before the enemies. A soldier sacrifices his life bravely for his motherland. It is he who has to live miles away from his family. While defending his country he goes into the jaws of death.

To commemorate Kargil Vijay Diwas - which is celebrated on 26th July every year, Uri: The Surgical Strike was being re-released in Maharashtra by Maharashtra government. The initiative to screen the film in 500 theatres free of cost across Maharashtra has been taken by the state CM.

The students of all years of MKES College of Law were taken to watch the movie Uri: The Surgical Strike to instill a sense of nationalism, patriotism at PVR Milap Kandivali (west) with faculty members Prof. Mahendrakumar Yadav, Prof. Vanita Agarwal, Prof. Purba Ganguly, Prof. Varsha Vyas along with our Principal Dr. Vandana R. Dube.

Key to Crossword

Rakshabandhan Celebration

A festival centered around the tying of a thread or ornamental bracelet on the right wrist as a form of bond and ritual protection between brother and sister. The festive ritual in one principally between brothers and sisters, observed thereby marking her continued relationship with her brothers. The expression "Raksha Bandhan," literally means "the bond of protection, obligation, or care," is now principally applied to this ritual. On this auspicious day, the students of M.K.E.S. College of Law, accompanied by faculty celebrated Raksha Bandhan at various Police Stations across Mumbai on 25th August 2018 to show their appreciation for the protection that they offer to the city and the city bearers.

The memorable event took place at Malad Police Station, Kandivali Police Station and Borivali Police Station by group accompanied by on the Raksha Bandhan Eve and was graced by participation of about 50 students, accompanied by faculty members Prof. Mahendrakumar Yadav, Prof. Purba Ganguly, Prof. Vanita Agarawal, Prof. Namrata Shetty, Prof. Shivani Negi and Prof. Sneha Anikumar. The noble intention for organizing this event was to appreciate the efforts of our Khaki officers as well as to sent the message of "May the Ones Who Protect Us be Protected" and there could be no better occasion than of Raksha Bandhan.

The students assembled at the venue at 09.30 am. Each female student was provided with Rakhi and sweets for the Traditional Ritual. It was very heartwarming and humbling for the students to interact with the Officials. The students conducted the auspicious tradition and tied rakhis to a good number of officials and an hour later, all the students were asked to assemble together with Police Officials Senior Inspector, Mr. Vitthal and Asst. Senior Inspector, Suresh Patil, who conducted an educational and interactive session on various topics such as the lacunas of cyber laws and social media and how we can be vigilant about it. They addressed the students and enlightened them regarding 'How to Prevent Crime'. They guided students about how to prevent Cyber Crime, theft, and measures for car safety and to help others for the same. One of the most remarkable moment was when one of the retiring police officers asked the students to try and dedicate their time towards the welfare of the nation and helping police to do the same and they also acknowledged students presence. After the educational session students shared the frame for a photo to cherish these memories forever.

The event concluded around 11.30 am, and everyone exited the venue with a hope of returning next year and fond moments that will last a lifetime.

Navratri Celebration

On 9th October, 2018, the cultural committee of M.K.E.S. College of Law organised Garba to celebrate the festival of Navratri. The students gathered along with the teaching faculty and non-teaching staff. Dr. Vandana R. Dube, the Principal of M.K.E.S. College of Law declared the dance session open.

Students danced to the tunes of Navratri songs specially selected for the occasion. Faculty and administrative staff also shook a leg with the students.

Best dancer and traditional outfit male and female were declared; medals and certificates were distributed.

Christmas Celebration

On 15th of December 2018, the Cultural Committee of M.K.E.S. College of Law had organised Christmas Eve to celebrate the festival of Christmas. The Dress Code was Red, Black and Tie.

There were various games organised by the committee such as Antakshari, Dumb charades and fish pond.

The event was inaugurated with a note of Dr. Vandana R. Dube, Principal, M.K.E.S. College of Law. The students and faculty participated in various games. The event was filled with enthusiasm and fun.

DJ was organised by the college for the students and faculty which started around 11.00 a.m. Snacks and cold drinks were served to all students thereafter around 11.45 a.m.

All the game winners were rewarded with certificate and gifts.

Back to School

On 20th February 2019, the Cultural Committee (JALSA) of M.K.E.S. College of Law had organised "Back to School Day" in the Cultural Week.

The dress code of the event was that people had to dress as school students.

The event was fulfilled with fun and enthusiasm.

The competition was won by Jayoti Karmokar & Vidhi Parmar, Himanshu Samant.

All the competition winners were rewarded with the certificates and gifts.

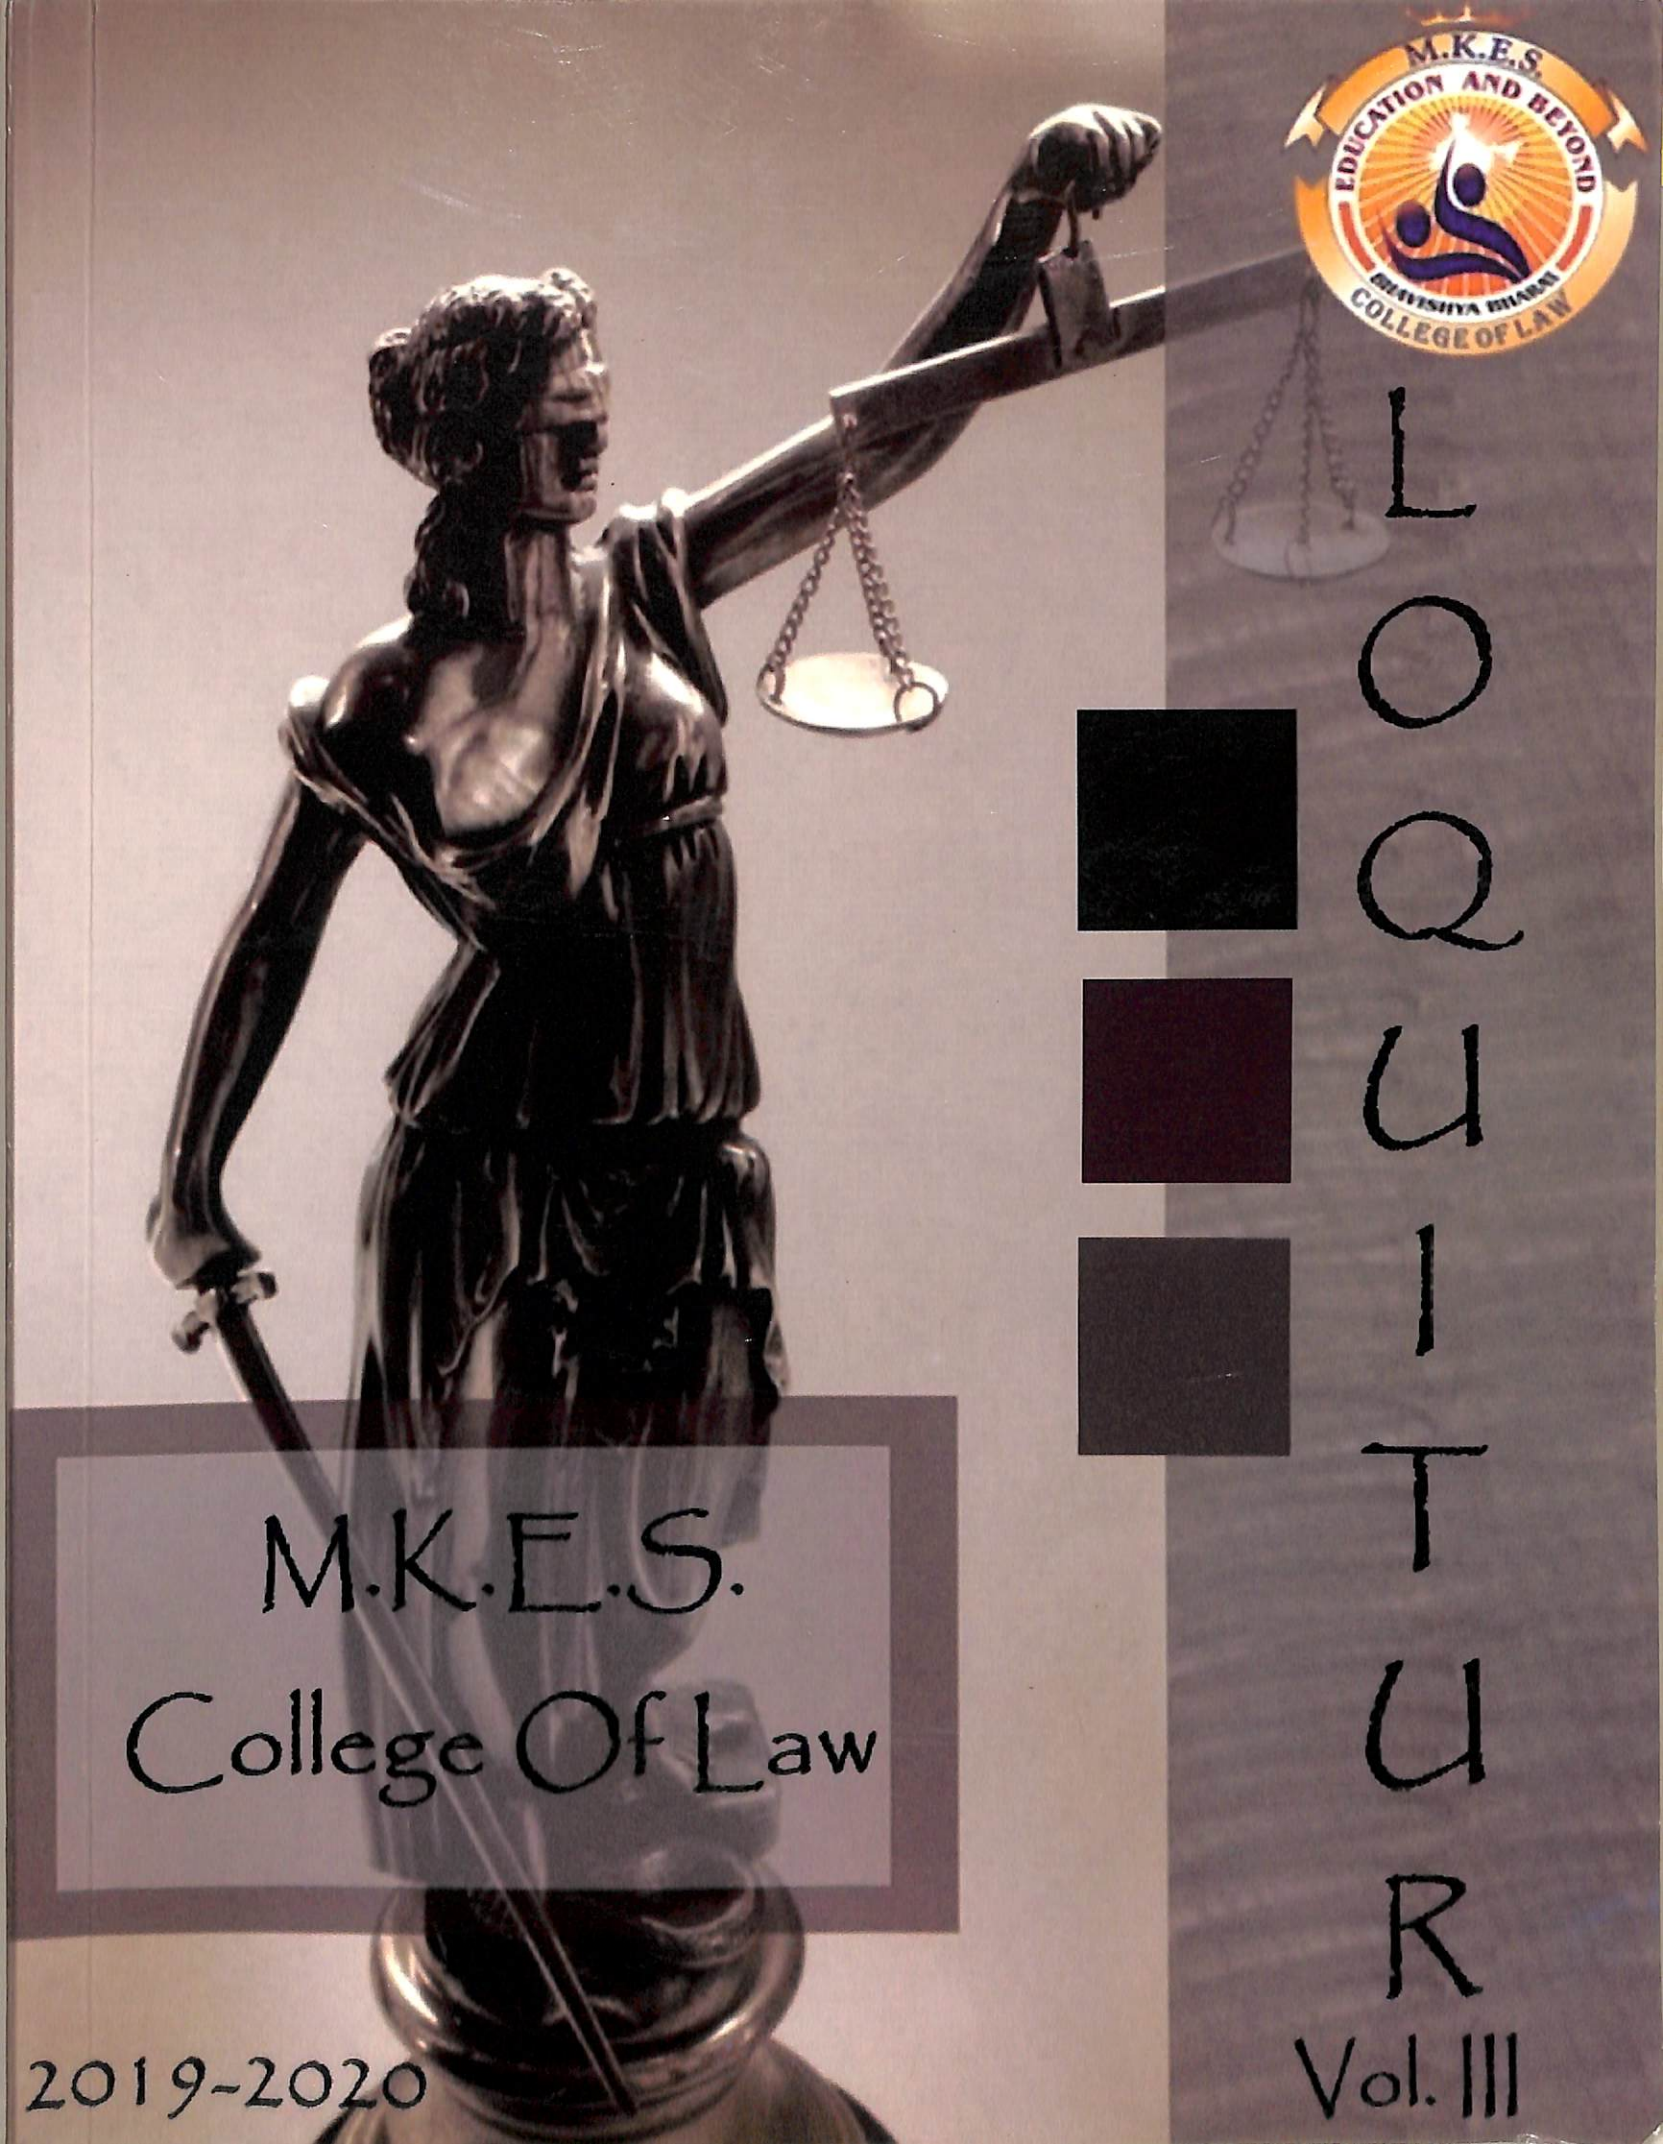

Malad Kandivli Education Society's

M.K.E.S. COLLEGE OF LAW

Bhavishya Bharat Campus, S. V. Road, Malad (West), Mumbai - 400 064.
Tel : 28010607 / 28085424 / 28086427 Fax : 28650461
E-mail : mkeslawcollege@nkc.ac.in | Website : www.mkescollegeoflaw.ac.in

NINE SQUARE PRINTS (INDIA) PVT. LTD., MUMBAI-23. Tel : 40785656 (A-044-19)

LOQUITUR

M.K.E.S. College Of Law

2019-2020

Vol. III

FRIENDSHIP DAY CELEBRATION

Friendship is one of the most cherished parts of our life. Whether you are sad, happy, angry or just confused, you need a friend to share your emotions. From attending classes together and to help each other in difficult times, friends are the most treasured ones.

When we have days celebrating each relationship, it would be a shame to not celebrate with our friends with whom we have spent moments that have been closest to our heats.

With the beginning of the year on 6thAugust 2019, cultural committee of M. K. E. S. COLLEGE OF LAW celebrated the FRIENDSHIP DAY in room no. 206 from 9 a.m. onwards. The noble idea of honouring friends and friendship has really enthusiastically celebrated by the youth especially, students. In tune with the spirit of the occasion, people dedicate Friendship Day festival to their friends.

Members of cultural committee also arranged stall of friendship bands for students. Many students happily purchased bands from the stall. Students along with teachers had fun while playing games and exchanging bands with each other.

Rebha Dogra from the class T. Y. BLS. and Nitesh Singh from the class S. Y. LL.B got the title of Miss. & Mr. Friendship respectively along with certificates.

Our principal Dr. Vandana Dube including all the teachers were really happy to see the students participating actively.

RAKSHA BANDHAN CELEBRATION

A sister ties "rakhi" to her brother which symbolizes 'a bond of protection'. On this auspicious day, the students of MKES COLLEGE OF LAW accompanied by faculty, celebrated raksha bandhan at various police stations on 14th August 2019 to show their appreciation for the protection they offer to the city and safeguarding the society by law and order.

The remarkable event took place at MALAD POLICE STATION , KANDIVALI POLICE STATION , BORIWALI POLICE STATION by groups accompanied by students and by faculty members Prof. Vanita Agarwal, Prof. Varsha Vyas ,Prof. Mahendrakumar Yadav, Prof. Namrata Shetty and Prof. Shivani Negi. A noble intent for organizing this beautiful event was to appreciate the efforts of our KHAKI OFFICERS.

The students assembled at the venue at 9:30a.m. Each female students was provided with rakhis and sweets according to the ritual. The students tied good number of rakhis to the officials. They were full of enthusiasm, zeal and gaiety.

Later, all students were asked to assemble together with Police officials & Senior Inspector Mr. Gulzarilal, who conducted an interactive session on various topics. He addressed the students and enlightened them regarding Designation Of Officers, 4 Departments Likely – Administration, P.r.o, Law & Order, Cases Related To Cognizable & Non- Cognizable Offences , Procedure Of Major & Minor Case Registrations, Types Of Chargesheets – "A-FINAL", "B-FINAL", "C-FINAL", "ABET-FINAL", Information On Session Court & Megistrate Court & finally WARRANTS.

After the educational session students shared a frame of photo to live these memories forever. The event concluded around 11:30a.m., and everyone went back home with happy heart and bunch of memory that will last long.

MARATHI BHASHA DIWAS CELEBRATIONS

"Labhale Amhas Bhagya, Bolato Marathi, Jahalo Kharech Dhanya Aikato Marathi Dharma Pantha Jaat Ek Janato Marathi Evdhya Jagat Maay Manato Marathi..."

The Backdrop:

The Government of Maharashtra has notified February 27th each year, as the "Marathi BhashaDiwas"–to commemorate the official language of the State of Maharashtra. 27thFebruary is the birthday of the acclaimed Marathi poet, Vishnu Waman Shirwadkar – alias "Kusumagraj". There are celebrations across the State to mark this occasion. Thestudents of M.K.E.S College of Law, ably guided by Principal Madam, Dr. Vandana Dube, all the faculty members and the administration team, celebrated this day on 6thMarch 2020, in the college premises.

In attendance:

Witnessing the event unfold, were Principal Madam, DrMsVandanaDube, The Event In charge - Ms. Varsha Vyas, Mr. Nikhil Rote and Maithilee Telang Madam, all faculty members, the entire office administration team, headed my Amin Sir, and the students who turned out in large numbers to mark the event.

How the Event Unfolded -

The event started with the traditional "Marathi Dandi Procession" together with the "Lazim" and the "Taal beats", on the back drop of the sweet rendition of the "Gajar", " Dnyanoba Mauli Tukaram.....", all the way from the corridor, to the venue of the event. Students in big numbers were a part of the procession and were joined in by Principal Madam, faculty members too....

All the participants dressed in traditional Maharashtrian attire was a sight to behold. Wonderful vibrant colors of the different kinds of traditional outfits added a totally different dimension to the atmosphere.

Once at the venue, the event started with a wonderful rendition of "Shree Ganesh Vandana", by Ms Tithi Kaur Arora.

It was followed by a brief introduction about the Marathi Bhasha Diwas and the reasons and the objectives behind the idea of celebrating this day by Mr. HimanshuSamant. As literature is an integral part of the beauty of any language, and with literature is associated knowledge and learning, an ode was paid to Mata Saraswati with a "Saraswati Vandana."

A brief insight was also given by Mr. HimanshuSamanton the contributions of various poets, writters, playrights and saints who have added to the depth and value to Marathi Literature.

The first presentation of the event was a group song, penned by Vinayak Damodar Savarkar, "Jayostute.. Jayostute...."was presented by Maithilee Madam, Ms Bharati Chit Navis, Ms Shivani Kumbhar, Ms RachnaPatole, MrHimanshuSamant, DrNilesh Rode and Mr Vijay Yadav

The event then moved on to giving a glimpse of the rich reserves of Marathi Poetry by recitation of poems by the following participants:

From the pages of history, a wonderful rendition of "Shivrayancha Manatle.... " by Ms Samruddhi Pai.

Depicting the Guru Shishya Parampara was Ms Mrinal Kedar with the beautiful poem – "Kumbhara sarkha guru nahi.."

A group song – "Labhale Amhas Bhagya..." was presented by Maithilee Madam, MsBharatiChit Navis, DrNilesh Rode and Mr Vijay Yadav.

Mr.Shubham Mishra the presented the motivating..." Fakta Ladh Mhana..." penned by Kusumagraj.

"Women And Right to Smart Shopping"

Speaker: Adv. Devika. M. Purav

As women are the indispensable and an important part of each ones life, a special session on the occasion of women's day was organized by the Women Development Cell of our college to provide knowledge about the various rights related to smart shopping on Saturday, March 7th 2020, in the college premises. The session was open for all the students of the BLS and LL.B. streams.

The students were enlightened on the subject by Adv.Devika.M.Purav. She is an Honorary Professor of law at 'New Law College'at Matunga, Mumbai. She is currently an independent legal practitioner and an advocate at the 'Bombay High Court'.

The lecture began with the lecturer giving examples of basic everyday shopping situation and the rights of consumers in those situation. In her own unique style, the speaker acquainted the audience with the importance of consumer protection rights and the way consumers could fight against exploitation done on them. In the course of the lecture, the speaker shared with the students her experiences where she helped her clients fight their own cases in the consumer protection Courts. At the end of the session our Principal Ma'am also shared her valuable knowledge on the same topic and enlightened us with her views on how women should be treated when they go for shopping and how she should not be judged by any person.

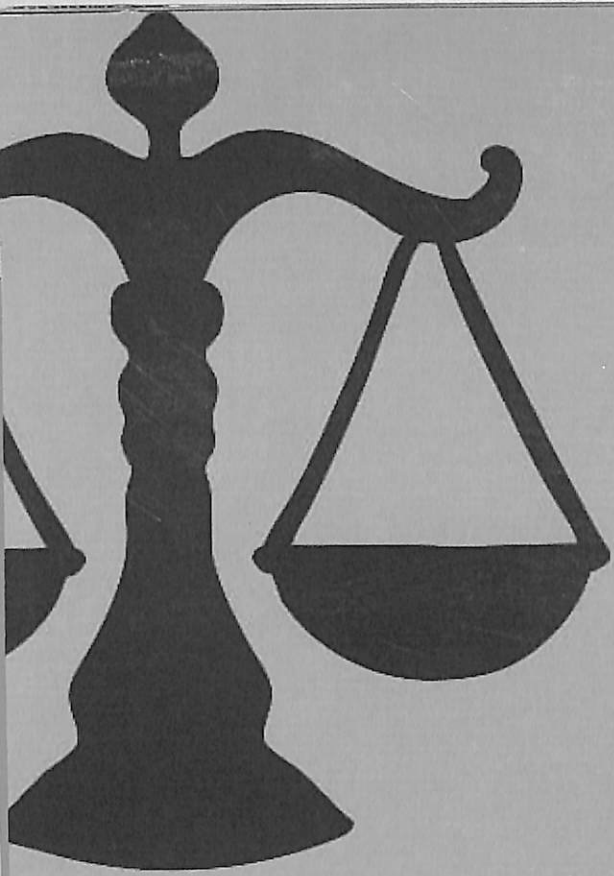

In the question and answer session that followed the lecture, students put across to the speaker various doubts and the issues they had faced. All these questions were answered to their satisfaction of the audience by the speaker, in her own astute and proficient way.

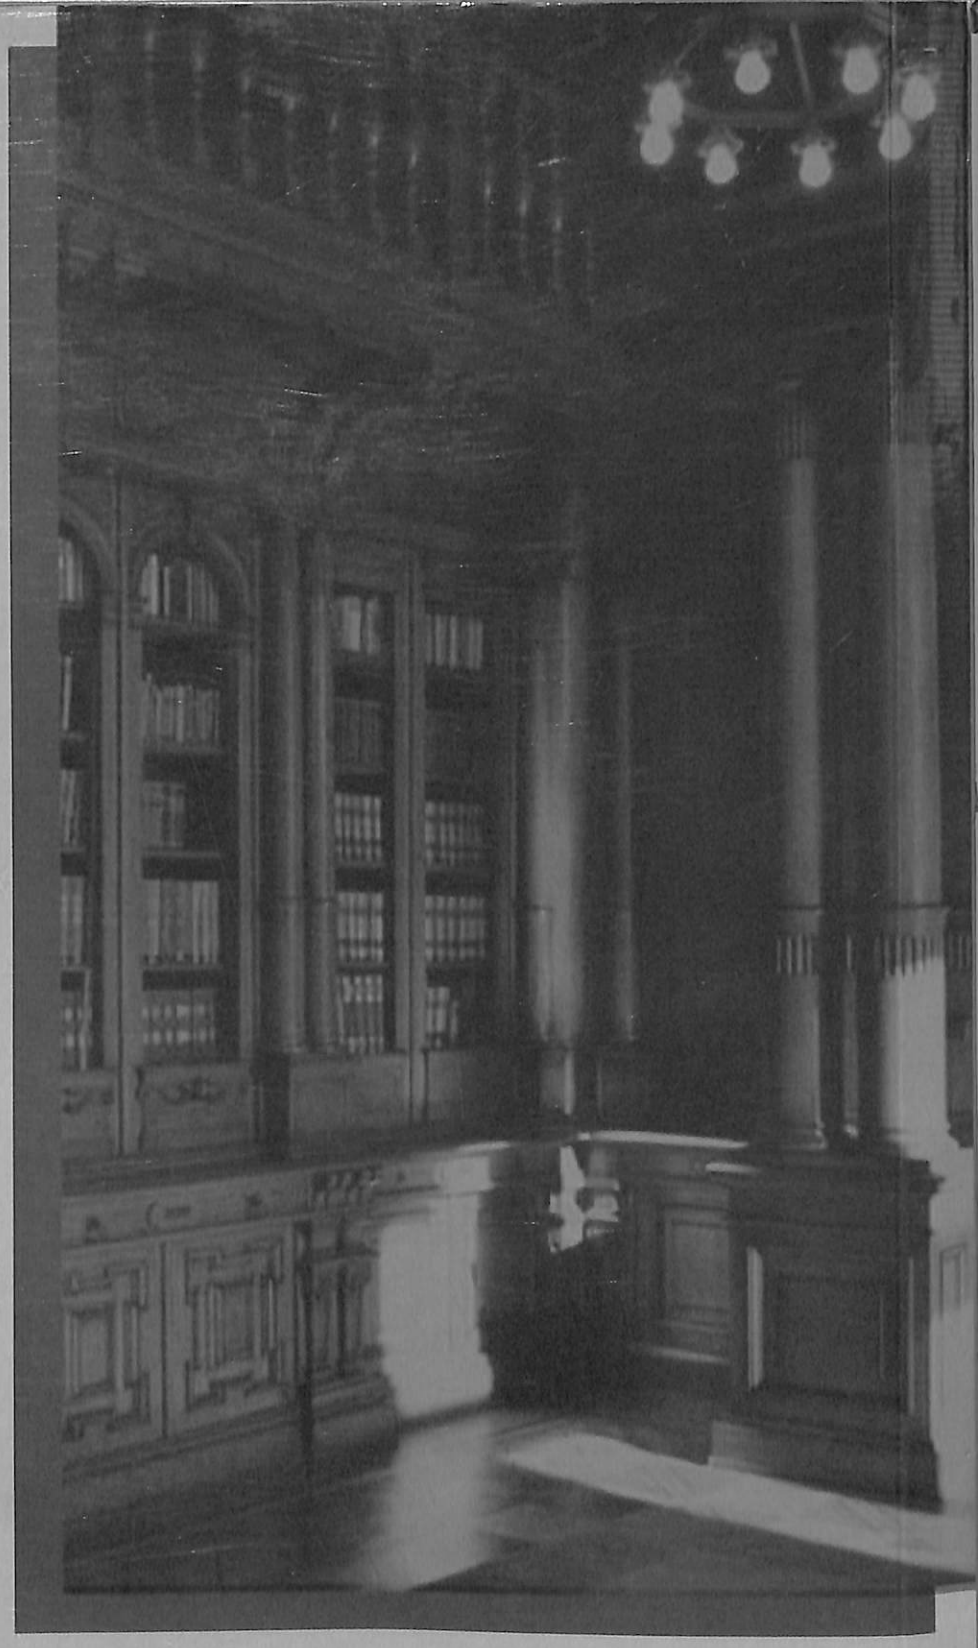

Malad Kandivli Education Society's

M.K.E.S. COLLEGE OF LAW

Bhavishya Bharat Campus, S.V. Road, Malad West, Mumbai-400064

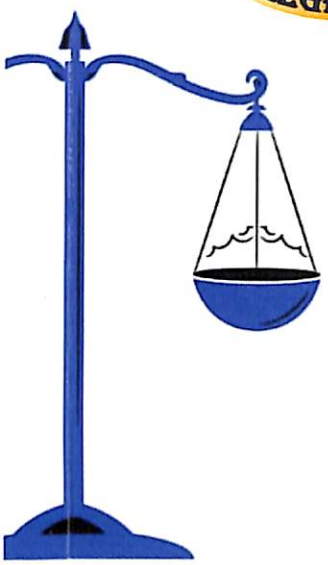

Tel: 022-28010607/ 208854424/ 28086427 Fax: 28650461

Email: mkeslawcollege@nkc.ac.in | Website: https://www.mkescollegeoflaw.ac.in/

M.K.E.S.
EDUCATION AND BEYOND
BHAVISHYA BHARATI
COLLEGE OF LAW

LOQUITUR

M.K.E.S. COLLEGE OF LAW

VOL IV
2020-2021

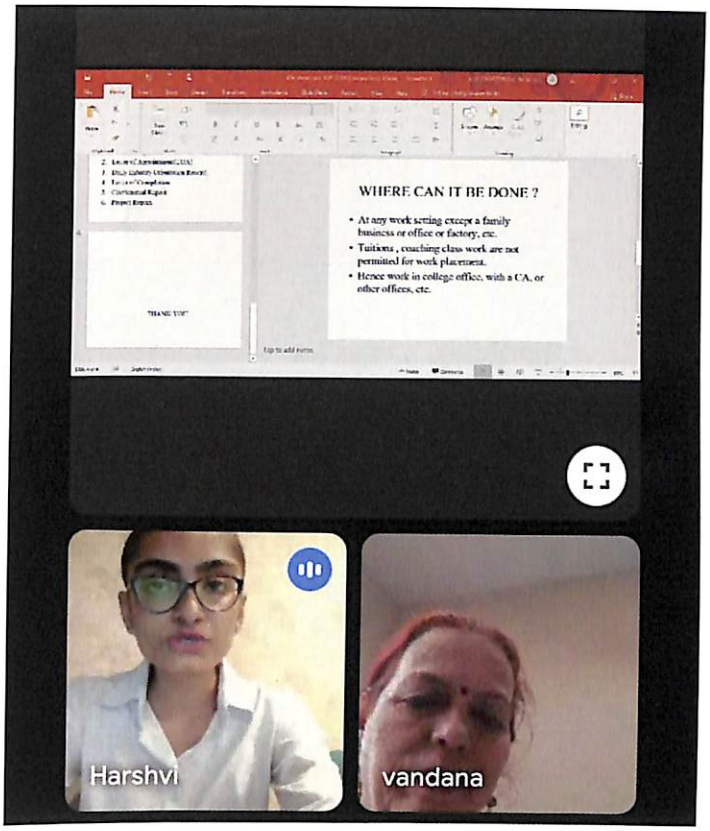

Stress Management through Sahaja Yoga

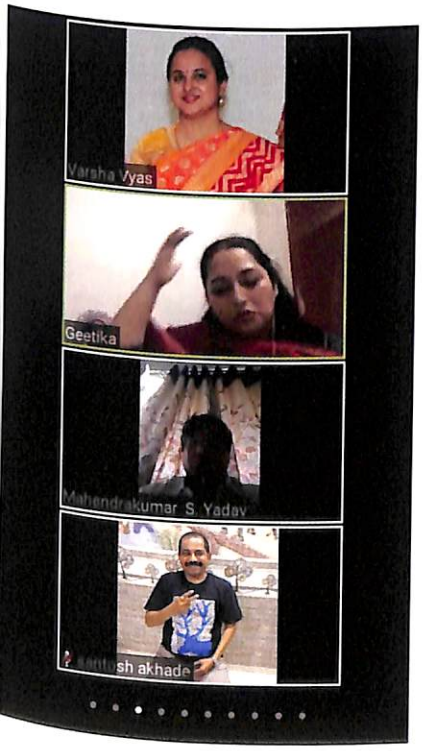

On 21st June, 2020 the Guest Lecture Committee of M.K.E.S. College of Law organised a webinar on the topic Stress Management through Sahaja Yoga by Ms. Geetika Tiwari.

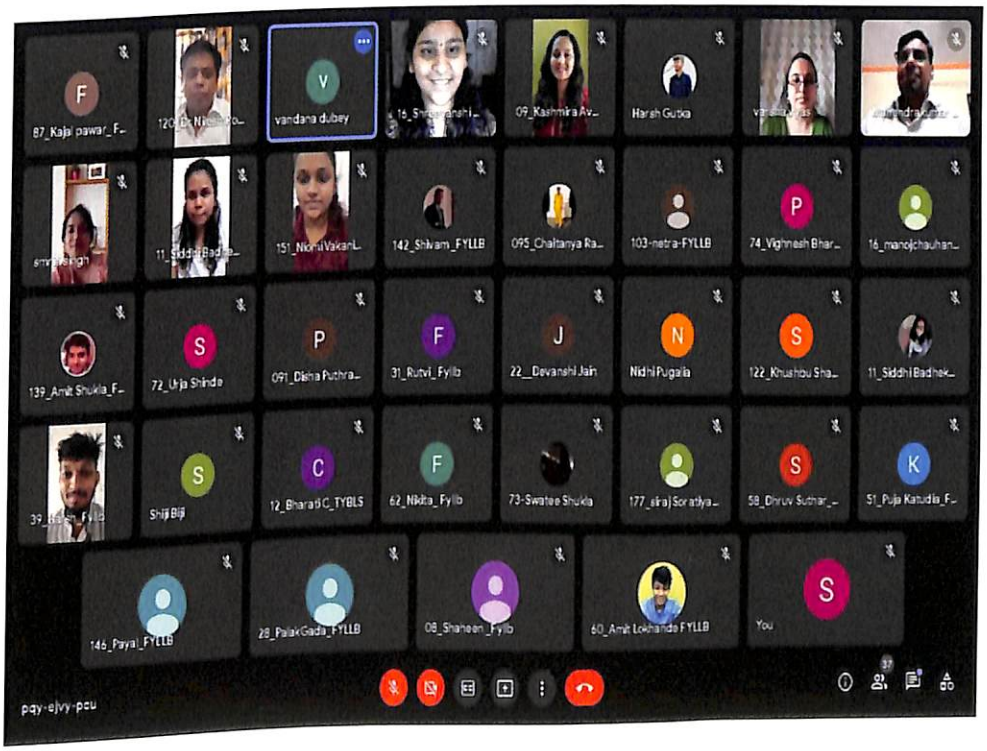

The event began with a welcome speech given by the Convenor Professor Varsha Vyas followed by the introduction of the speaker given by Ms. Rebecca D'souza.

Ms. Geetika Tiwari delivered a very informative session. The session was divided into two parts theoretical and practical. The webinar was further followed by an Q&A session between the students and the speaker.

The webinar concluded with the vote of thanks given by Mr. Manas Mane

Independence Day

On 15 August 2020, the Cultural Committee of M.K.E.S College of Law organised "Independence Day Celebration" on the virtual platform of Google Meet at 2:00 PM in the presence of the Chief Guest Advocate George Fargos, Principal Dr. Vandana Dube, Cultural Committee, Faculty Members and Students. This event was enlightened by the esteemed presence of our Chief Guest Advocate George Fargos, Principal Dr. Vandana Dube, along with Convener and Co- Convener Professor - Prof. Varsha Vyas and Prof. Shiji Biji. The teaching staff namely, Prof. Mahendra kumar Yadav, Prof. Namrata Shetty, Prof. Nikhil Rote and Non-teaching staff, last but not the least the students of M.K.E.S College of Law also enthusiastically participated in the event. The event commenced with an opening Poetry by the Organising Committee followed by National Anthem and Introduction of our Chief Guest. The event continued with a well contended and informative speech from our respected Chief Guest Advocate George Fargos. Cultural Committee had organised various competition for the day like Poster Competition, Slogan Competition and Elocution Competition where students of the M.K.E.S College of Law participated enthusiastically. Later the result and the winner of the competition was announced by our esteemed guest Advocate George Fragos. The announcement of the winner was followed by solo singing by the student Neeti Mehta of the organizing committee. The event concluded with vote of thanks, all the participants were overwhelmed by the feeling of pride towards our National freedom struggle and our National heroes but the significance of this was accompanied with the sense of responsibility to preserve it for our future generation.

TEACHERS' DAY

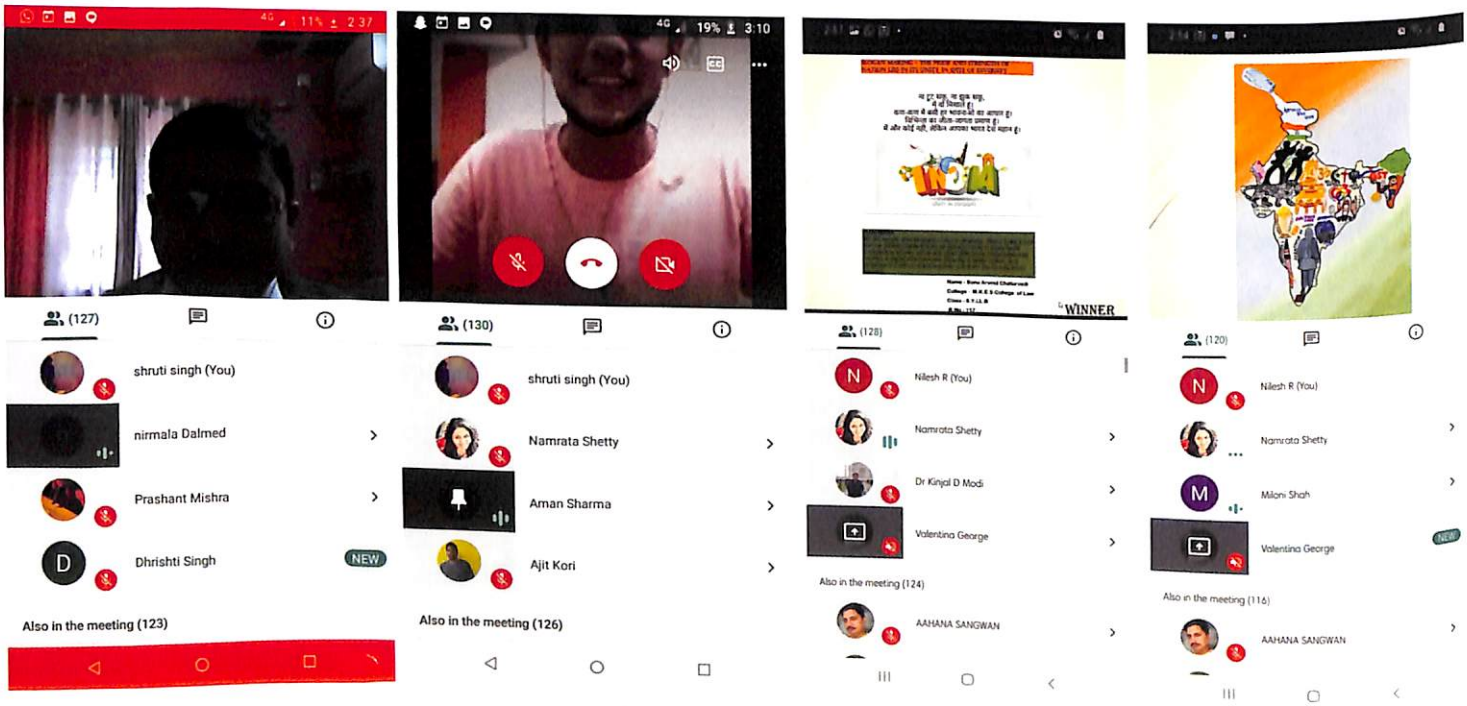

On 5th September 2020, the Cultural Committee of M.K.E.S. COLLEGE of LAW celebrated "TEACHER'S DAY" on Google Meet platform at 8 a.m. in the presence of students, cultural committee and the faculty members.

This event was enlightened by the esteemed presence of our Principal DR. Vandana Dube , along with Convenor and Co. Convenors : Prof. Varsha Vyas and Prof. Shiji Bhiji. The teaching staff namely, Prof. Namrata Shetty, Prof. Mahendrakumar Yadav, Prof. Nikhil Rote and the Non -teaching staff , last but not the least the students of M.K.E.S. college of Law also enthusiastically participated in the event.

The event started with our students representing as teachers explaining various topics. The event continued with an amazing welcome speech followed by some insightful lines by Principal ma'am Dr. Vandana Dube. It was an informative as well as a fun filled morning in which our own talented students performed poetries , a melodious song for the teachers, followed by a speech, after which posters were presented in which each artist had said few words describing the posters ending with another beautiful speech.

A lot of games were conducted for teaching as well as non-teaching staff where they were divided into a group of 5 for answering a set of few questions revolving around games like who am I, games for Bollywood fans, and also a few questions to test our general knowledge along with our knowledge regarding our college.

As the event ended with a video representation of a number of beautiful college memories of the teachers, a few heart-touching words from our cultural committee made it a memorable event for all of us and in the last few minutes of the event, the morning was concluded with a vote of thanks.

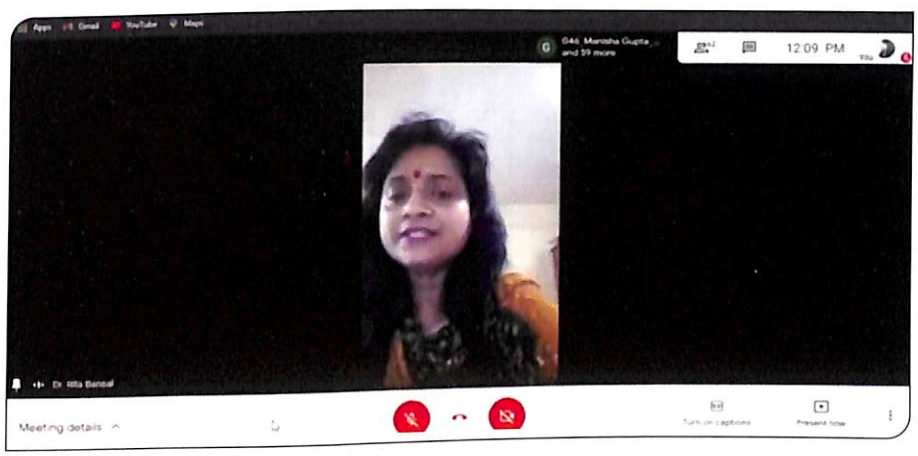

Gender Balance - An economic Issue

In the light of International women's week. M.K.E.S. College of Law have Conducted webinar tor the students. Egalitarianism in the present Scenario is the hot issue in this crises. As we see that now women are being entered in the varied fields Wherein earlier they had been prohibited to enter. It is also observed that Women are now being encouraged to do so. The M.K.E.S. College of Law had organised a webinar on the topic Gender balance -An Economic Issue by an eminent, popular and legendary speaker Dr. Rita Bansal on 13th March, 2021 on the platform of Google Meet at 12:00 pm.

The Webinar was graced by the presence of our most respected and Esteemed Director of M.K.E.S. College of Law; Ms. Ancy Jose, and our Principal Dr. Ms. Vandana Dube along with our respected Faculties of Law College.

Prof. Varsha Vyas introduced and welcomed all the dignitaries, faculties and participants for the event. The event started with the college Anthem. Later, the event had begun with a warm and heartfelt welcome Speech given by Ms. Miloni Shah. The welcome speech collectively welcomed and honoured the Chief Guest Doctor Rita Bansal to speak and enlighten the attendees of the event upon the topic 'Gender balance -An Economic Issue' Dr. Rita Bansal started the webinar event by explaining and making. The attendees understand the exact connotation of egalitarianism. She elucidated the qualities and potentials one must possess to become a successful woman, she also explained this with examples of various famous women around the globe who took the courage to break the chain and highlighted us with their habits and qualities and thereby the attendees of the webinar event were truly feeling learned and captivated by the enriching experience they were receiving. She explained case studies of various famous companies and also gave us Courage how to face the situations in our lives and various many other key Takeaways from the webinar event conducted by the M.K.E.S College of Law and it was a privilege for all those who got the opportunity to attend the Event.

Malad Kandivli Education Society's

M.K.E.S. COLLEGE OF LAW

Bhavishya Bharat Campus, S.V. Road, Malad West, Mumbai-400064

Tel: 022-28010607/ 208854424/ 28086427 | Fax: 28650461

Email: mkeslawcollege@nkc.ac.in | Website: https://www.mkescollegeoflaw.ac.in/